

DORA SCHWARZBERG

Dora Schwarzberg studied at Stoliarsky School and at the Moscow Conservatory, under the guidance of Yuri Yankelevitch.

She has performed as a soloist with the major orchestras of the world, including the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, the Washington National Symphony Orchestra and with the most renowned Russian ensembles. As a chamber musician she has performed in the most prestigious concert halls such as the Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, the Musikverein in Vienna and the Queen Elizabeth Hall.

For Dora music is not only a profession but a lifestyle. It is a means of communication with people, as varied and individual as the artists with whom she collaborated. They include Valeri Afanassiev, Martha Argerich, Yuri Bashmet, Valentin Berlinski, Gérard Caussé, Lucy Hall, Nabuko Imai, Misha Maisky and Alexander Rabinovitch.

Performance and pedagogical activities have naturally complemented each other. She holds Professorship at Hochschule für Musik und Darstellende Kunst in Vienna since more than twenty years, where she continues to explore music and life with her students. The great majority of them are prizewinners of international competitions, and hold leading positions with major orchestras and chamber ensembles all over the world. Dora also gives master classes internationally, such as the Yehudi Menuhin School and the Shanghai Conservatory of Music, and she is also regularly invited to be part of the juries of major international competitions.
